

Summary of the Thesis

Praise be to Allah, The Cherisher and Sustainer of Worlds. Prayer and peace be upon his Messenger and his allies until the Day of Judgment.

The title of this thesis (evidence of prophecy by Abu Naim Asbahani -Chapter Twenty Nine- Study and investigation) is submitted for the PHD degree in Hadith in the department of Hadith and Sciences.

The importance of this Thesis is that this evidences conclusive evidence on the truthful and sincerity of the prophecy of the Prophet Muhammad peace be upon him, and especially that which telling the past and future unseen. It is also shows the accepted and rejected stories.

This research includes an introduction, a body (which is divided into chapters) , a conclusion and references as follow:

- 1- Introduction: it contains the importance of the topic, the reasons for author choice, the research plan, curriculum research, and previous studies.
- 2- The body of the research : it is divided into two Chapters :
 - Chapter One: Abu Naim and his book evidence of prophecy , which includes two Sections:
 - i. Section One: Author personal life , which has two parts:
 - o Part I: personal life of the author.
 - o Part II: The Art of the prophecy evidence and related.
 - ii. Section Two: Abu Naim Prophecy evidence book .
 - Chapter Two : Achieving Chapter Twenty Ninth and represent 170 for the panel of the manuscript, the number of Bonds are 366 bond.
- 3- Conclusion, in which the meaning of the signs of prophecy is that Prophet Muhammad (PUOH) has been blessed by Allah , which proofs his Prophecy . This leads to an increase in faith, especially as telling the unseen past and future, and no one knows it unless by inspiration and a message from God. It shows that Imam Abu Naim's intension was collecting stories in accepted and rejected signs, without judging.
- 4- References: it contains scientific references.